

Abbreviated criminal procedures for core international crimes cases<sup>1</sup>

An international seminar organized in the series of the Forum for International Criminal and Humanitarian Law<sup>2</sup>

Sarajevo, Friday 9 October 2009, 9:00-17:15

Registration:

To register please send an e-mail message to ficjc@prio.no (with “Seminar 091009” in the subject field) by 2 October 2009, indicating your wish to register as a seminar participant. Remember to include your name and, for the purpose of the list of participants, your functional title (for example, “student” or “Legal Adviser (MFA)”) and e-mail address. Seminar participation is free.

The Norwegian Embassy in Sarajevo has kindly offered to organize a visit to Srebrenica on Saturday 10 October, the day after the seminar, returning to Sarajevo in time for afternoon flights out of the country that day. If you are interested in participating in the tour, please send an e-mail message to ficjc@prio.no prior to 25 September 2009.

---

<sup>1</sup> For the purposes of this seminar, the term ‘core international crimes’ refers to genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes. Sometimes the term ‘war crimes’ is used for core international crimes (for example, ‘war crimes process’).

<sup>2</sup> For more information on the Forum, see www.prio.no/ficjc/. The Forum would like to thank the Royal Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs for a financial contribution to this seminar; the Norwegian Embassy in Sarajevo for extensive assistance; Cathrine Bye for assisting with the travel arrangements for seminar speakers; and Alf S. Butenschøn for assisting with the registration of seminar participants.